ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 2, 1897.

PRICE 2 CTS.

At this moment thousands of men are standing at the crossroads of life. Death is the end of a foolish ambition, the end of a vain career, the end of a life of dissipation. It is the end of a life of pleasure, the end of a life of luxury, the end of a life of idleness. It is the end of a life of sin, the end of a life of crime, the end of a life of shame. It is the end of a life of misery, the end of a life of sorrow, the end of a life of despair. It is the end of a life of hope, the end of a life of faith, the end of a life of love. It is the end of a life of joy, the end of a life of peace, the end of a life of happiness. It is the end of a life of glory, the end of a life of honor, the end of a life of fame. It is the end of a life of power, the end of a life of wealth, the end of a life of influence. It is the end of a life of greatness, the end of a life of nobility, the end of a life of distinction. It is the end of a life of excellence, the end of a life of perfection, the end of a life of divinity. It is the end of a life of God, the end of a life of heaven, the end of a life of glory.

REVENGE FOR THE ANTI-HAT LAW.

The anti-hat ordinance recently passed by the Atlanta, Ga., city council and vigorously enforced during the last week in the local theatres is in grave danger of repeal. It was not until the theatrical season opened that the ladies discovered the true meaning of the movement, and at De Givies' Theatre Monday night one young lady, a social leader, turned away from the door rather than submit to the anti-hat ordinance.

At a gathering of Peachtree street ladies Tuesday the mayor happened to drop in, and the subject of revenge was discussed. The plan resolved upon was to ask the city council to pass an ordinance declaring the rising from their seats by gentlemen between the acts to be disorderly conduct. The mayor promised his influence and approval in the passage of such an ordinance.

Councilman Hutchinson, who represents the Sixth ward, in which the fashionable quarter is located, has taken the matter in hand, and will see to it that the ladies are properly represented.

A NORTH CAROLINA DWARF.—Mr. Ebenezer Chambers, of Hillsboro, Ill., is the name of a dwarf, who has been spending a few days with relatives in Winston, N. C. He will leave there to-day for Turnersburg, Iredell county, which is his native home. Mr. Chambers, who talks intelligently, says he will be seventy years old the 26th of September next. He is just four feet high and weighs seventy-four pounds. He left North Carolina about twenty-six years ago, and has been living in Illinois since that time. He is unmarried and his sister, who is an average sized woman, keeps house for him. He went back to North Carolina last January in the interest of his health, which has been benefited. His parents had several children, three of whom were midwinters—two sons and one daughter. The sisters died when quite young. The dwarf brother was accidentally killed while out driving in a cart in Illinois several years ago. He was then sixty years old and was much smaller than the brother who is living. Notwithstanding Mr. Chambers' age he is quite active for a man of his years. His eyesight, however, is failing rapidly.

PALESTINE FOR THE JEWS.—At the Zionist conference at Basel, Switzerland, yesterday a scheme to centralize the movement for the purchase of Palestine was considered and adopted. A central committee of twenty-three members, representing all the national groups, was appointed. Its headquarters will be in Vienna. The voting was completed, except in the case of the English and American delegates. In the course of the financial debate it was proposed to raise a fund of $50,000,000, which the central committee will organize. A commission was appointed to report upon a scheme to establish a university in Jerusalem. The congress concluded its business and adjourned. It will meet next year in Jerusalem. Much enthusiasm was displayed throughout the proceedings.

A Valuable Prescription. Editor Morrison of the Worthington, Ind., "Sun" writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Prices 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

It Saves the Croupy Children. SEAVIEW, Va.—We have a splendid sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and our customers coming from far and near, speak of it in the highest terms. Many have said that their children would have died of croup if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had not been given.—KELLUM & OUREN, The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. H. Hanney, Druggist, 701 King street.

For Over Fifty Years. AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind. aug17 ad 4w 1y

You run no risk. All druggists guarantee Groves' Tasteless Chili Tonic to do all that the manufacturers claim for it. Warranted to cure no cure, no pay. There are many imitations. To get the GENUINE ask for GROVES'.

This company has been formed to explore, develop and mine the gold fields of the Yukon Valley. In addition to its valuable mines, it will own and operate its own steamships to ply between the ocean and Dawson City, and, with abundant capital, be prepared to secure advantageous terms as traders in furnishing supplies to the various mining camps and in acquiring new mining properties.

It has purchased from Mr. A. E. IRONMONGER SOLA, of Dawson City, North West Territory, who has consented to act as managing Director in Alaska, his entire interests in his gold placers, aggregating 750 feet on Bonanza Creek and 250 feet on Last Chance Creek; also his real estate holdings, for warehouse and dock purposes on the river front, and other city lots in Dawson City.

MR. A. E. IRONMONGER SOLA has been several years in the Yukon country, being engaged as freighter, trader and miner, and is among the few men familiar with the necessities and advantages of the Klondike gold fields.

The mines are now being worked under the direction of the company's superintendent, MR. EARL CRUTCHER, and under the new arrangement, and with the help that will be required, an output of $200,000 per week is a reasonable expectation. Hence, while other companies are arranging exploration and prospecting parties to locate claims in Alaska next year, this corporation is producing bullion on its own property.

Of the $5,000,000 Capital Stock of the Company, $2,000,000 will be set aside for the development and purchase of additional properties.
